Purpose of the policy

This policy details how The Wensleydale School & Sixth Form deals with an emergency evacuation of the exam room(s) by defining staff roles and responsibilities and confirming the emergency evacuation procedure.

When is an emergency evacuation required?

An emergency evacuation is required where it is unsafe for candidates to remain in the exam room. This might include a fire in the exam room, the fire alarm sounding to warn of fire, bomb alert or other serious threat.

In exceptional situations, where candidates might be severely disadvantaged or distressed by remaining in the exam room, the emergency evacuation procedure may also need to be followed. This might include situations where there is severe disruption in the exam room, serious illness of a candidate or invigilator or similarly serious incidents.

Emergency evacuation procedure

Invigilators are trained in this procedure and understand the actions they must take in the event of a fire alarm or other emergency that leads to an evacuation of the exam room.

Emergency evacuation procedure
Actions to be taken
Stop the candidates from writing
Collect the attendance register (in order to ensure all candidates are present)
Evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority
Advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room
Candidates should leave the room in silence
Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination
Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination.
If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination
Make a full report of the incident and of the action taken, and send to the relevant awarding body
Additional centre-specific actions to be taken
In the case of a fire alarm, await confirmation from a senior leader/fire marshal that the room should be evacuated
Evacuate the room by the nearest fire exit
Escort the candidates to the assembly point
When/if allowed to return to the exam room, allow candidates time to settle down, reminding them they are still under exam conditions
Restart the exam and allow candidates the remaining time set for the exam
Make relevant changes to the displayed finishing time
Record as much detail as you can on the exam room incident log and ensure the Exams Officer is fully briefed at the end of the exam to enable a full report to be sent to the awarding body
Where not allowed to return to the exam room, or the decision is made that the exam must be abandoned – the centre's Exam Contingency Plan (Emergency Evacuation) will be invoked and you will be briefed accordingly at the time
